ABSTRACT

The body of the abstract begins here and is typed double spaced. There is no longer a word limit to the length of the abstract, but please be concise.

PREFACE

It was a dark and stormy night; the rain fell in torrents — except at occasional intervals, when it was checked by a violent gust of wind which swept up the streets (for it is in London that our scene lies), rattling along the housetops, and fiercely agitating the scanty flame of the lamps that struggled against the darkness.

APPENDIX

[This is where your appendix goes. You can have as many appendices as you wish. If you have additional appendices, insert a Section Break (Next Page) between them and apply the Heading 1 style to the heading of each appendix. Don't forget to update the Table of Contents.]

[Do NOT put your references or bibliography ahead of any appendices]

Citations may be in alphabetical order by the surname of the main author, or they may be numbered and arranged in order of appearance in the text. A variation on the second style is that some students arrange all cites alphabetically by main author, and then number them when the section is complete. In this case, the cite numbers in the main text are not sequential (e.g., 1, 2, 3) but will jump around (e.g., 34, 85, 12, 27)

If you have a references section at the end of each chapter, you must have a cumulative bibliography at the end of the thesis, after any appendices, and preceding your Curriculum Vitae.

CURRICULUM VITAE

[This is where your CV goes. You may place a Vita here instead, and change the heading. If you do a Vita, it should be a third-person narrative; change the paragraph spacing to double.]

[This section is required of ALL students]
